A holistic offer for moving to Geneva

01

Assessing your needs

We understand that each case is unique, which is why we customize our services to meet your particular requirements.

02

Tailor-made research

Our team undertakes an in-depth search to find the accommodation that matches your criteria. We take into account location, size, budget and all your preferences.

03

Planning and organizing visits

We organize property visits accompanied by us or unaccompanied, and adapted to your schedule. Our goal is to optimize your time and provide you with a comprehensive overview of the options available.

04

Managing Applications and rental agreement

We handle your application with letting agents and landlords. We also support you in signing the rental contract and guide you through the check-in process up to receiving the keys.

05

Moving in

We make your moving in period easier by taking care of the activation of electricity, internet and telephone subscriptions, thereby helping you to settle into your new home with peace of mind.

06

Temporary Accommodation

If needed, we can help you to find temporary accommodation to ease your transition before moving into your permanent home.

Discover Geneva and its surroundings

Explore the city of Geneva in a unique way

A personalized guided tour that reveals the treasures of this magnificent City of Calvin, as well as the most popular neighbourhoods. This immersive experience allows you to soak up the history, culture and elegance that characterize Geneva, while familiarizing yourself with the city's most popular neighborhoods.

Simplify your family's installation as much as possible

We make our in-depth knowledge of the Swiss schooling and childcare systems available to you.

01

Search and selection

We take care of researching and helping to select the educational establishments that best match the needs and aspirations of your children. We take into account factors such as geographical proximity, quality of teaching, languages offered, and other criteria specific to your situation.

02

Information

We provide comprehensive information on the different educational options available in Switzerland, including public, private, international, and alternative schools. Our goal is to share with you the options available so that you can make informed decisions.

03

Registration Help

We assist you with registering your children at the chosen school, and we ensure that your your application is handled in a professional and timely manner by the school.

Comprehensive management of moving logistics

01

Linking

We have established partnerships with carefully selected international and regional moving companies. These moving professionals have a solid reputation for their reliability, efficiency and attention to detail.

02

Options and advice

Our team guides you through the different moving options available. We explain the pros and cons of each option in detail so you can make an informed decision.

Making life easier for you

When you're considering moving to a new country, the paperwork, immigration, and settling in can be overwhelming. Our immigration and settlement support service is designed to support you through this complex transition.

01

Administrative assistance

We put you in touch with specialists for all administrative procedures such as: visa applications, work permits, opening bank accounts and taking out insurance.

02

Advice and support pre- and post-settling in

Our team is available to answer all your questions and guide you through the pre - and post- settling in process. Whether your questions relate to housing, education, or other aspects of daily life, we are here to support you.

Manage your departure smoothly

01

Preliminary inventory

We are on hand to assist you with the preliminary inventory, ensuring that any observations are correctly recorded.

02

Quote for repairs

We take care of any quotes needed for repairs to the property, so you are confident that everything is in order before you leave.

03

Transfer of the rental agreement

If you wish to transfer your lease, we take care of finding a potential replacement tenant, thereby making it easier for you to move out.

04

Exit Inventory

When checking out of the apartment, we are by your side to assist you with the exit inventory, thereby guaranteeing a transparent and fair process.

05

Overseeing the release of your bank deposit with the letting agent

After your departure, we follow up as needed to ensure that your bank deposit (guarantee) is released by the letting agent so that you can recover your money with complete peace of mind.
